Citigroup Inc. (NYSE: C)

Citi hires Johanna Turner as Country Compliance and Control Officer for Australia and New Zealand

Sydney, 20 July, 2010: Citigroup today announced the appointment of Johanna Turner as Country Compliance and Control Officer for Australia and New Zealand. She joins from Macquarie Group where she was Global Head of Compliance for Fixed Income, Currencies and Commodities.

Ms Turner will report to Peter Monaci, Head of Compliance and Control for Asia Pacific in Hong Kong. Locally she will report to Stephen Roberts as Citi Country Officer for franchise issues and the businesses within the Institutional Clients Group, and Roy Gori for the businesses within the Global Consumer Group including Citibank.

Mr Monaci said, "We are very pleased to welcome Johanna to the team. She has an impressive background in the legal and compliance professions, which will serve us well as regulation continues to evolve in markets around the world."

Stephen Roberts said, "Johanna's background in the financial markets will make a valuable contribution to the institutional business, and her reputation for professionalism and knowledge will be of value to the entire franchise. It is with great pleasure we welcome another senior woman to the operating committee of our bank."

Prior to Macquarie, Ms Turner held senior roles with the Australian Stock Exchange, the Australian Derivatives Exchange, the Sydney Futures Exchange and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission. She also ran her own legal practice, providing legal consulting services to the financial services sector.

Ms Turner will take on responsibilities currently managed by Philip Holt, who has played the dual role of Country Compliance and Control Officer and Country General Counsel. He remains Country General Counsel for Australia and New Zealand.

Roy Gori said, “Both local and offshore legislation governing the operation of a retail bank is at the core of everything we do, and we pride ourselves on adhering to the spirit as well as the letter of law. We look forward to partnering with Johanna to ensure we maintain the high standards we have achieved to date.”

Ms Tuner has a Bachelor of Arts and Law from Macquarie University and is a member of the Law Society of New South Wales among other professional memberships. She is active in the Australian Financial Markets Association having chaired the Futures Industry Compliance Committee and been a member of the Anti-Money Laundering Committee and Heads of Compliance Committee.
